Presidents' Prologue

Hi Everyone:

A rather belated Happy New Year to you all.

Our Fall/Winter activities have been excellent so far: in November we had a show at Salem Library which was very successful - it was seen by many people and we sold seven pieces. During November we had a three-day workshop with Yukimi Annand which was very enjoyable and packed with wonderful ideas: she is such a gentle and inspiring instructor, and showed us so many interesting ways of 'writing' with found objects.

Our December meeting was an opportunity to eat far too many goodies and learn some new crafts, but also to support Backpack Buddies in their efforts to assist low income students. In January we had a wonderful time playing with Tyvek, acrylics and sumi ink. Our February meeting had to be cancelled due to snow and icy conditions, but we managed to reschedule for the following week and the Golden representative - Corrine Lumis Dietz - was our speaker. In March our own Sally Keeney will demo Engraver's Script using Linda Schneider's techniques; in April Lori Festa has a very intriguing program on a cut-out alphabet, and in May Christy Wood of Runaway Art will be showing us cards and stamps. There are lots of other interesting events planned in the way of programs and workshops ... it's going to be a busy spring and summer!

In July and August we will swing into demonstrating at art fairs: please sign up to take a shift at each of the fairs - even if you don't feel confident enough to write names, we always need people to help the demonstrators and greet and inform the public about our guild and calligraphy in general, so come and help out ... you will enjoy it.

We are delighted to welcome new members to our guild - Diana McCabe, Kathy Kaspari, Bettina Wenger and Dorothy Zimmerman - and we look forward to getting to know you better at future meetings.

Best wishes to you all for Spring 2014 - Laura and Penny
